Christ Church Vero Beach Will Host Veterans Salute Barbecue August 10

VERO BEACH, FLA., JULY 17, 2019 – Christ Church Vero Beach will host the 5th Annual Veterans Salute Barbecue Saturday, Aug. 10, 2019 from 1 to 3 pm for all veterans and their families.

The event is being held inside the Christ Church Vero Beach 9.23 Community Center located at 667 20th Street in Vero Beach.

The 2019 Veterans Salute Barbecue is coordinated with the Veterans Council of Indian River County to express gratitude to veterans and their families for their service with a free lunch and patriotic entertainment. The lunch, provided by Christ Church Vero Beach volunteers, will feature pork barbecue, coleslaw and baked beans followed by cherry cobbler for dessert.

Special activities include an honor guard, musical tributes, and a keynote address by Pastor Dave Newhart, a veteran who served more than four years in the United States Air Force and is the current rector of St. Elizabeth's Episcopal Church in Sebastian, Fla. Fr. Newhart also serves on the Executive Board of the Veterans Council.

To RSVP for lunch or for further event details, please contact Connie Boyter at 772-696-2160 or connieboyter@comcast.net.

Additional information on Christ Church can be found by going to its website, www.ChristChurchVero.org (<http://www.ChristChurchVero.org>) or by calling the Church Office at 772-562-8670.

Christ Church offers ministries, programs and events for families, children, youth and adults. By participating in the various ministry opportunities at Christ Church, members, newcomers and guests are nurtured in worship, Scriptural truths, practical evangelism and deepened faith.
