- C. To engage in Christian ministries and charitable activities consistent with said purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3), Section 509(a)(1) and Section 170 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the applicable rules and regulations thereunder (the “Code”), together with all other activities permitted by Florida Statutes

Section 617.01011 et seq., as amended, of the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act, which further the exempt purposes of Christ Church, as specified herein. These charitable activities include, but are not limited to, the payment of overhead expenses, administrative costs, and reasonable salaries to the employees of Christ Church when necessary to carry out the exempt purposes of Christ Church, provided, however, that: (a) no part of the net earnings of the Christ Church shall inure to the benefit of any Member of Christ Church or other individual; (b) no substantial part of Christ Church's activities shall consist of carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation; and (c) Christ Church shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. It is the specific intention of Christ Church that the purposes and activities of Christ Church be as broad as permitted by Section 617.01011 et seq. of the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act, but only to the extent that Christ Church qualifies as a tax exempt organization within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3), Section 509(a)(1) and Section 170 of the Code.

Section 3. All Welcome

Everyone is welcome at worship services at Christ Church, and Holy Communion is open to all persons baptized in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Membership in Christ Church is open to those who are eligible in accordance with these bylaws.

Section 4. Statement of Beliefs

As a church in the historic Anglican tradition and as a part of the one holy catholic and apostolic Church of Christ, we affirm the following beliefs:

- A. We believe and confess that Jesus Christ is the way, the truth, and the life: no one comes to the Father but by Him.
- B. We affirm that the canonical books of the Holy Scripture, the Old and New Testaments, are the inspired Word of God, containing all things necessary for salvation, and are the final authority for Christian faith and life.
- C. We affirm that Baptism and Holy Communion are Sacraments ordained by Christ Himself in the Gospel, and thus must be administered with unflinching use of His words of institution and of the elements ordained by Him.
- D. We affirm that the godly historic office of bishop is an inherent part of the apostolic faith and practice, and therefore is integral to the fullness and unity of the Body of Christ.
- E. We affirm, as proven by Holy Scripture, the historic faith of the undivided church as declared in the Apostles' Creed and the Nicene Creed.

F. We receive The Book of Common Prayer, consistent with this statement of belief, as a standard for Anglican doctrine and discipline.

G. We affirm that marriage is a life-long union of one man and one woman, instituted by God and intended for the mutual joy, help, and comfort of husband and wife, and, when it is God's will, for the procreation and nurture of children. We further affirm that because the single life, either by call or circumstance, is honored by God, unmarried persons and single parents should embrace and be embraced by the Christian family.

H. We affirm that human sexuality is an inherent part of God's creation of every human person. We further affirm that a husband and wife are called to exclusive sexual fidelity to each other, and that single persons are called to abstinence from sexual activity.

I. We affirm that all human life is a sacred gift from God and must be protected and defended from conception to natural death. We further affirm that we will uphold the sanctity of life and bring the grace and compassion of Christ to those who face the realities of abortion, unwanted pregnancy, and end-of-life illness.
